

I signed up to be placed on the DO NOT CALL list because my telephone number should be mine to distribute as I see fit. While I can choose to answer a constantly ringing phone or not, the incessant disturbance is an invasion of my home and my privacy. I am well aware of how to contact ANY organization that I wish to do business with. I do not believe that ANYONE should be able to come into my home, by any means, uninvited.